The Message Behind TrueView

At its core, TrueView is about respect—respecting your time, your boundaries, your preferences, and your values. Entertainment should never feel like a gamble.

With TrueView, you get the tools to make confident, comfortable, and enjoyable choices every time you sit down to watch or play.

1. MOVIES & SHOWS PAGE

Purpose

This page helps users quickly understand the content in movies and shows before watching them. Some titles look family-friendly at first but include language, violence, or themes that may surprise viewers. TrueView makes these details easy to see so families and cautious viewers can pick something comfortable and appropriate.

Intro Paragraph:

“This page lets you explore both movies and shows with clear and simple content information. Each card includes a short summary, content ratings, and helpful indicators so you always know what to expect before pressing play.”

1.2 Search Bar

Placement: directly below the intro paragraph.

Label: “Search movies or shows...”

---

1.3 Content Grid — Movie>Show Cards

Each card includes:

[Poster Image Here]

Title of the Movie or Show

A large, clear heading.

Short Summary (example text):

“This is a quick description of the movie or show. It explains the basic idea without spoilers and helps viewers understand the tone.”

Content Ratings:

- Violence: Low / Medium / High
- Language: Low / Medium / High
- Scary Moments: Low / Medium / High
- Themes: Light / Moderate / Heavy

Purpose: These ratings make it easy to understand the level of intensity.

[Button Here] — “View Details”

Repeat this layout for all titles.

---

1.4 Optional Filter Bar

“This section lets users filter by age level, content intensity, or genre so they can easily find media that fits their preference.”

[Filter Buttons or Dropdown Here]

---

---

2. GAMES PAGE

Purpose

Video games often have different types of content from movies or shows. This page helps users understand gameplay intensity, difficulty levels, and overall themes before choosing a game. It also explains the meaning of video game rating categories in simple terms.

PAGE LAYOUT

2.1 Page Title — “Games”

Intro Paragraph:

“Explore video games with simple summaries and content ratings. Each game card shows what the gameplay is like, the level of intensity, and the platforms you can play it on.”

2.2 Search Bar

Label: “Search games...”

Placed under the intro.

---

2.3 Content Grid — Game Cards

Each game card includes:

[Game Cover Image Here]

Game Title

A clear heading at the top.

Short Summary (example text):

“This is a short description of the game that explains the style, genre, and general feel without going into deep detail.”

Content Ratings:

- Violence: Low / Medium / High
- Language: Low / Medium / High
- Difficulty: Easy / Moderate / Hard
- Themes: Light / Moderate / Heavy

Platforms:

“Available on: PC, PlayStation, Xbox, Nintendo Switch”

(Your junior devs can adjust per game.)

[Button Here] — “View Details”

Repeat for each game.

2.4 Video Game Ratings & Their Meanings

Section Title:

“Video Game Ratings Explained”

Intro Paragraph:

“Video games use a rating system to show the recommended age group and the type of content the game includes. Here are the most common rating symbols and what they mean in simple terms.”

---

E — Everyone

“Suitable for all ages. Contains very mild or cartoon-style action.”

E10+ — Everyone 10+

“May include mild violence or slightly scary themes. Good for most older kids.”

T — Teen

“Contains moderate violence, mild language, or suggestive content. Best for teens and above.”

M — Mature 17+

“Stronger content such as intense violence, strong language, or dark themes. Intended for mature players.”

A — Adults Only

“Contains adult-level material. Rarely used and not recommended for general audiences.”

3. GUIDES PAGE

Purpose

The Guides Page gives families and cautious viewers simple tools to understand content ratings and choose safe movies or shows. It also offers helpful tips and visual aids for making good viewing decisions.

3.1 Page Title — “Guides”

Intro Paragraph:

“This page offers simple guides to help viewers understand content ratings, find safe movies, and make good choices for different age groups. Each section breaks down important information in a clear and family-friendly way.”

---

3.2 Parent Guides Section

[Icon Placeholder – Book or Parent Icon]

Paragraph:

“Parent Guides explain the tone, intensity, and important moments in movies or shows. They give parents a quick overview of what their kids might see without spoiling the story.”

---

3.3 Age Charts Section

[Age Chart Graphic Placeholder]

Paragraph:

“Our age charts show which types of content are generally appropriate for different age groups. This helps parents quickly match content to their child’s comfort level and maturity.”

---

3.4 How to Read Ratings Section

[Icon Placeholder – Info Symbol]

Paragraph:

“Ratings can sometimes be confusing, so this section explains what each category means. Violence, language, scary moments, and themes each have simple definitions to make rating bars easy to understand.”

[Small Rating Bar Example Graphic Placeholder]

3.5 Safe Movie List Section

[Checklist Icon Placeholder]

Paragraph:

“This list includes movies that are low in violence, language, scary content, and dark themes. It’s perfect for families, younger viewers, or anyone who wants something calm and comfortable to watch.”

[List Placeholder — movies your class chooses]

3.6 Tips for Picking Safe Movies Section

[Lightbulb Icon Placeholder]

Paragraph:

“These tips help viewers choose movies that fit their comfort level. They’re simple, practical, and easy for parents and kids alike.”

Tips:

- Check content ratings instead of relying only on the main rating letter
- Read the summary to understand tone
- Avoid dark or heavy themes for younger viewers
- Look for tags like “low violence” or “no scary moments”
- Use age charts for quick decisions
